Case - Timothy N. Pfeiffer,
Subject - Homicide, New Brunswick, N.J.,
Operative - 124.

October 8, 1922. In connection with the above matter, Operative proceeded to New Brunswick, N.J.

Upon arrival at New Brunswick, N.J., Operative visited the vicinity of the Hall home, also the vicinity of the Court House, and generally roamed out Town.

Operative overheard several women and a man on a porch in Home Street remark that the authorities had run down the murderer, and expected to arrest him most anytime.

At about 4.30 p.m. Operative proceeded to the office of the Western Union Telegraph Co., at #413 George St., New Brunswick, N.J., and while in there under pretense, overheard the following remarks:- "Lamb is disgusted and is going to quite." "Oh, he calmly discussed his relationship with Mrs. Mills." "Gregory is going to write up a story from Charlotte Mills, with picture." "She talked very nicely." "Did they get anything out of Willie?" "Not a thing." "They were all set to get a confession from Willie." "D---- if I don't think they wanted to frame Willie." "They will make an arrest in ten minutes." "No." "Out of Town." "The one that seen the car."

At the time Operative was in the above mentioned place, there were about six or seven reporters typewriting their stories for the papers.

Operative left the Western Union Telegraph office and proceeded out towards Highland Park, and remained there a short time, then again returned to the vicinity of the Western Union Telegraph office.

At about 7.30 p.m. Operative observed an automobile bearing New Jersey License #015-540 drive up to the front of the Westion Union Telegraph office and stop. Two men left the car and entered the Western Union Telegraph office and had a short and hurried conversation with several men in the Telegraph
